PROGRAM TO BE THE BEST EVER

Resume of Talent For Coming Chautauqua Shows List of Prominent Men.

THE MUSIC WILL BE PLENTIFUL

Will Open the First Day With an Immense Automobile Parade Over the City.

The program for the Rush County Chautauqua which will be held August 6 to 15, is now about completed and is an unusually strong and attractive one. The Program committee has worked hard and searched a wide field to get the very best for the money. Following is a list of the attractions:

Richmond P. Hobcon, the hero of the Merrimac, has been secured for Friday evening, August 13. Mr. Hobson is now congressman from Alabama and is recognized as one of the best speakers on the platform. As a drawing card and speaker, he is second only to W. J. Bryan.

Senator J. P. Dolliver of Iowa has long been regarded as one of the leading orators of the country. His stand for clean, honest public administration has made him a conspicuous figure in national politics. He will be at the Chautauqua on Tuesday evening, August 10.

Father McCorry who will be on the program Monday evening is regarded as the leading Catholic lecturer since the death of Father Vaughn. His "Story Beautiful" stands in the lyceum world as one of the finest lectures of the day.

Ellen Stone, the missionary who was captured a few years ago by Turkish brigands, will be with us on the first Sunday. Miss Stone is a lady of great culture, wide experience and is a speaker that is sure to please.

Stanley Krebs of Philadelphia is an author and lecturer of the first magnitude. He is one of the brainiest and most satisfying lecturers on the platform. He gives a line of popular psychology that is sure to please. "The Psychology of Fear and Worry" and "The Marvels and Mysteries of Mind" are two of his most popular subjects.

For the opening night of the Chautauqua we have secured one of the leading humorists of the country, Spillman Riggs. He will start us off in a merry humor, Saturday night, August 7th, We are to have Gideon Garl, an impersonator. Those who have seen him and Elias Day regard Garl as the better of the two. The last Sunday we are to have Dr. Geo. H. Hawes of Pennsylvania. Dr. Hawes is an author of a number of interesting books and is a very force-

TINSLEY CALLED TO A BIG CHURCH

Former Rushville Methodist Minister Continues to Climb the Ladder of Fame.

IS NOW AT YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Rev. C. W. Tinsley, formerly of Rushville, and son of Rev. Charles Tinsley, formerly pastor of the M. E. church in Shelbyville, has accepted a call to the Lincoln avenue Methodist church at Pittsburg, and will assume his new pastorate as soon as the present conference year closes. He is at present pastor of the Methodist church at Youngstown, Ohio. It will be remembered that a charge of heresy was started against Rev. Tinsley, but he was promptly exonerated.

INSPIRING SERMON BY REV. ABBERLEY

At the Union Meeting of Churches at Presbyterian Church Last Night.

A GOOD MUSICAL PROGRAM

Those who attended the second of the series of Sunday evening union meetings at the First Presbyterian church last night heard an inspiring sermon by Rev. R. W. Abberley of the Main Street Christian church on "The Victory of the Saints." His address was considered one of the best ever heard here and was a masterpiece in itself, not considering his powerful method of delivery.

The musical numbers prepared for the meeting were of a high class, in keeping with the standard set by the local musicians. A large representation of all the churches was present.

WHEAT GRADED FIFTY TWO

Grain in Milroy Neighborhood Averaged 12 Bushels to Acre.

Farmers all over the county are busy threshing. The wheat, according to predictions will in few places average over fifteen bushels to the acre. The threshing company worked on the Rex Innis farm near Milroy Saturday. The wheat graded fifty-two pounds and averaged twelve bushels to the acre.

The use of rat skins in various industries has created a demand in London alone to the amount of nearly $200,000 a year.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Tuesday. Warmer Tuesday.

Prosperity in Chunks Falling all Round Us

Shelbyville located three new factories last week without giving any "bonus." There are surely awake in Shelbyville. It takes "live wires" to do things these days. Any town can boom that wants to.

Local brick masons, go to Connersville this week to begin work on an addition to the McFarlan Carriage factory, 70-200 feet. An immense automobile factory is to be established and material is already purchased for an output of 3000 machines next year.

The corporation which has been so rapidly increasing its output of automobile bodies, already has contracts for 1910, amounting to 30,000 bodies. The capital stock has been increased to $800,000 and aluminum bodies will be made hereafter instead of wooden ones.

Richmond announces that Ed. M. Haas, Secretary of the Commercial Club has a definite proposition from a metal stamping concern in the East which wants to locate in the Quaker City and build a mammoth plant to employ 6000 men.

Richmond is to have five automobile plants next year.

The automobile business is the greatest manufacturing business that the world ever saw. Why can't Rushville have ne now?

Indianapolis has twelve automobile factories.

Connersville has a remarkable growth ahead of her in the near future. She has a new Carnegie Library, paved streets, a Commercial Club composed of live, aggressive merchants. They are after D. M. Parry and his new million dollar plant.

The business men of any town can make it grow. What are the merchants of Rushville going to do for Rushville?

Prosperity is falling in great chunks at New Castle. Besides having the greatest auto factory in the world they are now seeking to locate an Italian plant to make a high class machine not heretofore made in this country.

Building in our sister city is increasing rapidly but not fast enough to take care of the increase in population. While a great many buildings are going up a lot of people unable to find houses are living in tents.

They know how to get things in New Castle.

Madden & Co. will soon have their plant near the Pennsylvania depot complete. They think of making automobile parts in quantities.

The "Leader" automobile plant at Knightstown was sold last week to Greenfield parties for a low price.

A lot of the business men in Rushville are having the following lines printed on their business envelopes. It's a good ad for the city and you ought to use it. "Rushville is on the map. Population, 6000. Four great railroad systems, the Pennsylvania, Big Four, C. H. & D. and L. E. & W. Fastest traction service in the world on the I. & C. line. No labor troubles. Natural gas cheap and abundant. The center of the far famed live stock and blue grass region of Indiana. Fine schools, strong churches, splendid clubs and fraternal organizations. The most beautiful residence city in Indiana. Come and see."

What is the Rushville Improvement Association to do for Rushville in 1909?

Another chance lost for Rushville. Factories are moving and re-locating everywhere now. Rushville ought to catch one or two while they are changing. Let's get busy.

Nearly all the metropolitan papers are running column articles entitled "The Return of Prosperity." As soon as the tariff agitation is over we will undoubtedly enter upon an era of the greatest prosperity this country ever saw.

It's alright to talk of Improvements, but what we need is pay rolls. Pay rolls "make the wheels go around," increase business and develop a town in everyway. Let's have more pay rolls.

As we've said before, booming a town is largely a matter of psychology. The people of a town can make the town whatever they want it to be. They can do anything they think they can do and want to do. Let's believe in Rushville, think about Rushville, talk Rushville and boom Rushville. What other towns do all the time all around us, we can do, if our business men wake up.

Every citizen should assist in a boom and in fact every movement that tends to better the city. All property owners, all men having investments here and the business men in particular. All can and should contribute to their support. It shouldn't all be shouldered on the our people wake up.

MOTOR FIENDS DID FEW FUNNY STUNTS

City Boys Invaded Rushville Yesterday Evening on Return to Indianapolis.

MADE GOOD TIME ON THE TRIP

Five motor cycle fiends were here yesterday evening enroute to Indianapolis on a return trip from Connersville. The roads were in a very bad condition and they were covered with mud from head to foot. They stopped here for gasoline and spent their time giving a free show on Main street doing tricks on their machines.

They made the time from Indianapolis to Connersville in about two hours. One member of the party evidently did not enjoy the trip as he was heard to say that he would rather be riding "skirts" around the city than driving over the country roads at a two minute clip.

BUSINESS IS ON BIG INCREASE

Prospects of the I. & C. Line Are Much Better Than They Have Ever Been.

RECENT REPORT SHOWS A GAIN

Owing to Receivership Road Will Not be Extended to Cincinnati This Year.

Will M. Frazee of Rushville, claim agent and one of the directors of the I. & C. traction company, says the Shelbyville Republican, was in the city Friday on business connected with his company. Mr. Frazee is kept busily engaged with matters that demand the greatest of care, but if one were to start out to find a better man for the position his hunt would in all probability be fruitless.

To a representative of this paper Mr. Frazee stated that the business in all branches of the road was greatly improved in the past few months. A monthly statement is issued and the one for the month of June shows that the business on the Shelbyville branch increased about seven per cent. This increase was largely in the freight and express departments as the traffic in these two branches during the past few months has been the best since the completion of the road. Merchants and other shippers have found that the I & C. can give much better satisfaction than the steam roads when freight is hauled for a short distance and they have been giving the most of their patronage to the traction company.

Mr. Frazee when asked about the extension of the road to Cincinnati was not able to give any information. He stated that as the road was in the hands of a receiver that it was impossible to tell what might be done in the future, but he added that nothing was being done in this direction at the present time. On the whole Mr. Frazee left the impression that the road might be extended when the receivership was lifted.

According to Mr. Frazee no changes will be made in the running of the road this year. Everything is getting along satisfactorily and he is well pleased over the results that have been obtained during the past few months. There has been some talk of building a road from Shirley to Rushville, but Mr. Frazee was not prepared to say just what progress had been made. Mr. Newby, a promoter from Knightstown went to New York several days ago to consult with eastern capitalists, but from all reports the prospects are not very

TRAGIC INCIDENT OF A MOTOR RACE

Four Killed and Many Injured In Race at Berlin.

Berlin, July 19.—As the result of the explosion of a motorcycle and a fire which followed it, four persons were killed, more than twenty severely injured, and a dozen others slightly injured during a cycle race at the Old Botanic Gardens Sunday evening. Thousands of spectators had gathered around the track, which was opened for the first time a few days ago.

An endurance race was on, and some of the best-known cyclists, including Stellbrink, Contenet, Ryser and Stol, were entered. After a few laps the tire on one of the pacemakers' motorcycle burst and the rider lost control. The benzine exploded in a burst of flame and the machine leaped into the air and hurled itself against the barrier, which broke down.

The rider was thrown off and fell against other competitors, who were pitched to the track, several of them being severely injured. So terrific was the speed of the motorcycle that it continued on its course after the explosion, crashing into the public stand, hurling spectators right and left and setting on fire several women's dresses. Two women were instantly killed and their bodies, saturated with flaming benzine, were burned to cinders.

The wooden stand caught fire and the flames flashed in the faces of bystanders, who, with clothing ablaze, rushed about shrieking with pain and fear, until cool-headed onlookers threw them to the ground and smothered the flames.

A panic ensued, in which a great number of persons, including children, were badly trampled. Eighteen men and four women were seriously injured, two of the men having since died. The hospital surgeons say that several others are in a hopeless condition.

Mexican Campaign Opens.

Mexico City, July 19.—More political excitement was in evidence in this city Sunday than has been noted in the past decade. The party opposed to the re-election of Ramon Corral as vice president of the republic in the general elections which will be held in July, 1910, held various mass meetings and some speakers indulged in incendiary speeches. A number of arrests were made and the offenders thrown into prison. The demonstration was in favor of General Bernardo Reyes.

PILGRIM MEMORIAL.

Erection of Giant Cross at Marshfield Hills, Mass., Proposed.

GREATEST OF MONUMENTS.

Striking Feature Suggested For Celebration of Three Hundredth Anniversary of Landing of the Pilgrims. Grand Electric Display and Searchlight Planned.

A "historical and moral celebration" of the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the pilgrims is proposed for 1920 by Alvin A. Vinal, who is a descendant of the pilgrims, a member of the Pilgrim society and a former member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants. In plans which he has prepared for the event Mr. Vinal suggests the heights of Marshfield hills, Massachusetts, where he is a resident, for the celebration, which he thinks would be good for Boston as well as Plymouth, since it would attract visitors from all over the world. "Trinity hills," he says, "are the highest land in Plymouth county, overlooking all the pilgrim land and bay from Cape Cod to Boston. Miles out at sea and inland the exposition buildings would show to enticing advantage, especially to shipping passing in and out of Boston. An electrical display is one of the great charms of modern expositions, and buildings on these great elevations in one blaze of glory at night would be one of the greatest sights ever witnessed. On the bay itself the navies of the world could meet and view the whole exhibition. Here are great springs, guaranteeing the purest water supply, with ample river power for the electric display and power for the exposition. Two great lakes can easily be made, and there are wooded groves for park purposes.

"Among other features in commemoration of this great anniversary celebration I propose a great monumental permanent cross of stone and steel, the tallest in the world, to stand for all time and be the great feature of the exhibition. From the top and arms will be the grand lookout over the pilgrim land and water of Massachusetts bay, to which the people will come for all time. The cross will be one blaze of electricity, making at night the most sublime display ever witnessed. When surmounted by the largest searchlight its beauty and meaning would be impressed forever on passengers on the foreign steamships passing to and from Boston."

The grounds of the exhibition are to be laid out in the form of a cross. Mr. Vinal also suggests the erection on one of the hills by the churches of the world of a permanent church of stone containing the largest meeting room in the world to be devoted to "historical meetings and addresses by the great revivalists, preachers and lecturers of the world," with "great chime bells pealing from its tower the anthems of the pilgrims. A great white stone, the only one of its kind known, typical of the event, should be the pulpit on which will rest the baptismal basin, to be the baptismal tank, for here thousands will desire to be baptized into the larger life.

"On another hill will be the greatest wireless station and a water tower supplying the exhibition. On the plateau will rise the great hotel and roof garden built by gifts from the hotels of the world, the Puritan building donated by New England families and containing their exhibits, a great religious museum contributed to by all the world and built by the county of Plymouth, a great electrical plant built so as to make a great lake, damming North river and giving great water power such as such an exhibition will require. On the lake will be enacted daily the parting, sailing and landing of the pilgrims in a ship representing the Mayflower."

It is proposed by Mr. Vinal that the cross, to cost $1,000,000 or more, according to the response, be built by contributions of $5 each from the churches of the world, a souvenir gold cross being issued to each contributor. To ministers a cross with a diamond in the center at $25 each will be issued. For contributions to the expenses of the exhibition he suggests "the golden book of honor, a great subscription book, in which the names of givers of $1,000 or more will be recorded; the five million book, in which the names of all giving $5 will be recorded, each to receive a passable dollar coined by the government as its gift to the exhibition; the golden roll, a framed roll recording the gifts of those who give $100,000 to the exhibition." An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged to enter the cross.

A great religious pilgrim revival to culminate in the celebration of 1920 is finally suggested by Mr. Vinal. "Let the committees of the ministers of all denominations," he says, "inaugurate the continuance of the present revivals and the 1915 movement into a great revival and let all pastors everywhere urge their congregations to become members of the church and possessors of the little crosses of gold which are to be issued only to church members who aid by their purchase the building of the memorial anniversary cross, the greatest monument ever erected in the world. Let all Christians wear these badges as acknowledgment of the alliance that the power of Christian lives may be carried everywhere and upheld openly."

Finally Mr. Vinal suggests the formation of a committee of a hundred representative citizens to meet for arrangement of the details at the Plymouth Memorial church at Boston in the week beginning July 4 or Sept. 16.—Boston Herald.

SEES ANOTHER CIVIL WAR.

Outcome of Tariff Problem and Only Cure For It, Claims John Bigelow.

From another civil war, due this time not to slavery, but to the tariff, the United States may be saved by national insolvency, toward which it is rapidly drifting, says John Bigelow, the aged Democratic statesman, in a letter to the tariff reform committee of the Reform club, in reply to one calling for financial assistance. Nothing else will save the country from civil war, he thinks.

All appeals for a real revision or a reduction of the tariff, Mr. Bigelow says, are like appeals to drunkards not to drink to excess or to burglars not to steal so often. He goes on:

In each and every case these appeals are not merely to toleration of crime, but an excuse for it, just as the toleration of slavery blinded more than half the nation to the fact that slavery was not only a disgrace to any nation, but a violation of the divine law, which had to be expiated by trials proportionate to its enormity.

When your reform committee is prepared to take a firm stand against any tariff upon imports, to make every harbor upon our 600 miles of seacoast as free to the commerce of the world as those of New York are to those of New Jersey or those of Pennsylvania are to those of Virginia, I shall be happy to join you and do what I can to promote the success of your labors.

In such a work I should have the satisfaction of knowing that I was not even indirectly countenancing a vicious system of taxation; also that I was helping to put our statesmeh upon an inquiry for sources of revenue that were not tainted with every crime, save murder, of which highwaymen have been condemned by the laws of God and man.

Your hope from the division of the administration party over the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill is, I think, largely a delusion. No one can count the number of people that are willing to steal or go on the highway for a living whenever public sentiment or the law will say or even countenance the implication that these modes of living are not disreputable. We have before us in the tariff precisely the same issue that confronted us in the rebellion of 1861.

To me it appears that protection is even more firmly fixed in its saddle than ever slavery was, because the property it gives to the protected exceeds the total value of the slave property of the United States at its maximum.

I make no pretensions to being a prophet, and therefore I will only ask what reason there is for hoping for a deliverance from the unrighteous burden of protection by any less severe trials than those by which we effaced the only reproach upon the constitution of the United States provided by our conscript fathers who framed it. What motive had the southern planter to go to war for the protection of slavery that the Republican party has not in far greater degree to fight for protection?

THE TROUBLE IN PERSIA.

Shah's Disregard of the Constitution Led to the Outbreak.

The recent occupation of Teheran, the Persian capital, by the Nationalists is a direct result of the insistence of the Persian people that the shah govern the country under the constitution that was granted on Jan. 1, 1907. The shah has ignored and withdrawn the constitution, which he signed when he ascended the throne. His course has resulted in widespread unrest in Persia, which in some sections has approached anarchy. The movement to compel him to observe the constitution gained force until, following the dissolution of parliament in 1908, a great part of the country broke out in insurrection, particularly at Tabriz, which fell into the hands of the Nationalists after fierce fighting.

While the shah was trying to cope with this situation in the north the Bakhtiari tribesmen, the fighting race of Persia, rose in the south and early this year captured Ispahan, 210 miles south of Teheran. The tribesmen then began the long march to the capital, and their advance guard arrived in front of Teheran last month.

In addition to her internal disorders, Persia has been beset by serious situations on her frontiers. On one side Turkey has invaded Persia in the direction of Drumiah, her ground for this step being a frontier dispute of long standing, and the city has been surrounded by Kurdish bandits and Turkish troops. The British and Russian governments have been exerting their influence to induce the shah to summon a representative assembly to bring the state of anarchy to an end, and Russia, acting in full accord with Great Britain, has sent a military expedition into Persia from Baku for the protection of foreigners. This force was recently at Kazvin, eighty-six miles from Teheran.

The Persian empire is divided into British and Russian spheres of influence, and these complications, together with the Turkish aggression on the western frontier, have served to increase the hostilities between the internal factions.

POLICEMAN WORTH $250,000.

Philadelphian, Aspiring to Be a Great Detective, Begins as Patrolman.

Possessed of a fortune said to exceed $250,000 and at the same time of a desire to become a great detective, Arthur H. Mulholland has begun at the bottom of the ladder by joining the police force of Philadelphia as a subpatrolman at $2.25 a day.

For the last few days he has been on reserve night duty, occasionally going out on the patrol wagon, but the other day he was given a regular beat in a residence section.

A PUZZLE IN LEPROSY

Eleven Persons From Molokai Free From the Disease.

RESULT OF RE-EXAMINATION.

Had Been Declared Lepers and Had Spent From Two to Twenty Years In Hawaiian Settlement—Nineteen More to Be Re-examined — Legislative Committee's Discovery.

Is leprosy, after all, curable, or have men and women and children, too, with no taint of the disease in their veins been sent in the past to lifelong exile at the Molokai leper settlement in the Hawaiian Islands?

These questions have been raised by the outcome of the re-examination of eleven persons, each of whom had in the past been declared a leper and had spent from two to twenty years in the settlement. The re-examinations were made by the most eminent pathologists and bacteriologists in the islands. One of them was Dr. Walter Brinckerhoff, who was sent to Honolulu by the surgeon general of the United States three years ago to study the disease and if possible to discover a cure.

Nineteen more persons from the settlement are to be brought to Honolulu to be re-examined to determine whether they are now lepers.

These re-examinations were made owing to a visit to the settlement of a committee of the legislature of Hawaii when last in session. This committee found several people there who showed outward signs of the disease, and most of them insisted that they were not lepers. After this visit Senator Frank Harvey introduced a joint resolution requesting the board of health to bring some thirty persons named in the resolution from the settlement to Honolulu for the purpose of being re-examined by three physicians, one to be chosen by the person himself, another by the board of health and the third by these two. The board of health brought eleven of the thirty to Honolulu, that being as many as there were accommodations for at one time at the leper receiving hospital at Kalihi, near Honolulu. The other nineteen will be taken to Honolulu as fast as there is room for them.

That every one of the first eleven brought should be declared not a leper is considered remarkable, for, while some of them were sent to Molokai years ago, before the bacteriological test was in use, several did not go there until it had been adopted. They therefore must have given evidence under the microscope that their systems contained the bacillus of leprosy. Under re-examination the microscope fails to reveal the presence of the bacillus.

This has given renewed hope that a cure for the disease may yet be found either by accident or by research. Apparently since these eleven went to the settlement there has been something either in their treatment or in their dietary or in both which has enabled the system to resist the attacks of the bacillus and to expel it finally from the system or else nature herself has arrested the disease.

On the other hand, there are among the physicians of the territory some who believe that these persons are not really free from leprosy; that the disease still lurks in their tissue, possibly to break out again. This opinion is based on the mysterious and elusive character of the disease which has baffled science. Not only has it found no cure, but it cannot even describe the character and progress of the disease so as to fit all cases. It is claimed that even among these eleven persons there are some who still bear the appearance of lepers, an appearance which it is impossible to describe, but which is easily recognizable by those who have had much to do with lepers.

However, as all eleven of these persons stood the bacteriological test, which is now considered infallible, all of them have been released. They will be kept under an unobtrusive surveillance to meet the possibility that the disease may again develop in them. It seems, however, hardly likely that it will, especially in view of the fact that of seventeen released from the settlement in 1902 on a similar examination none of them has ever developed evidences of the disease.

Of the eleven persons released ten were Hawaiian men and boys and one was a Portuguese woman. It is one of the strange contradictions of human habit and temperament that of these eleven released from lifelong exile eight have already petitioned the board of health to be allowed to return to the settlement and live. Familiarity with the disease has so hardened them to its horrors that they seem no longer to have any fear of it, and the comfortable, easy life led there by the lepers, supported by the government and not confined within inclosures and with no indications of restraint except those of illimitable sea and unscalable mountains, appeals strongly as against the outlook of wresting a scanty support by hard labor.—Honolulu (Hawaii) Special Cor. Stocking "Shower" For a Teacher.

Something new in the way of "showers" was seen at the home of Miss Jessie G. Johnson of Montclair, N. J., a teacher in the Maple Avenue school, the other evening, when her friends gave her a "stocking shower." The young women marched in lockstep around the lawn at Miss Johnson's home, encircling the hostess, and each guest dropped at her feet a neat package containing a pair of silk hose for her vacation.

CONNERSVILLE ASKS FOR TAFT

To Help Celebrate Centenary of "Twelve Mile" Purchase.

ACT THAT PRECIPITATED WAR

Treaty of Sept. 30 a Hundred Years Ago Provoked Dissensions Among the Indians That Culminated in the Decisive Battle of Tippecanoe—Celebration of the Centenary of the Event at Connersville May Be Marked by the Presence of the President, Who Has Signified Desire to Attend.

Connersville, Ind., July 19.—An invitation has been sent to President Taft by Mayor Barrows, asking the chief executive to visit Connersville on Sept. 30, the day being the 100th anniversary of the signing of the treaty with the Indians, known as the twelve-mile purchase.

President Taft has signified his intention of accepting the invitation and of making an address if he finds it convenient to do so. The twelve-mile purchase was the cause of the war with the Indians which continued for some time and culminated in the battle of Tippecanoe. The land involved in the purchase was of small consequence, but the war that followed spread over the whole of what was known at that time as the Northwest Territory. In the event that President Taft finds it possible to visit the city on that day an elaborate celebration will be arranged.

MET IN JAIL

Mrs. Miller Comes to Aid of Her Husband at Watseka.

Watseka, Ill., July 19.—Accompanied by Mrs. H. S. Bussert of Buckley, Ill., her sister, and Mr. Marshall of Blairville, an uncle of Dr. Miller, Mrs. W. R. Miller arrived from Blairville, Pa. She and her party repaired at once to the office of F. P. Morris, Dr. Miller's attorney, and held a long consultation.

She declared her intention to do all in her power to aid in the doctor's defense, and expressed the strongest confidence in his innocence. Afterward she went to the jail and was granted an interview with her husband. The pair flew into each other's arms, and the doctor showed great emotion, which is very unusual with him. The two held a long and earnest conversation, and the doctor was evidently overjoyed at his wife's appearance. Mrs. Miller later held an interview with Mrs. Sayler and the two women wept together and condoled with one another over their misfortunes.

Strike Riot at Joliet.

Joliet, Ill., July 19.—The strike of the car repairers at the shops of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad took a serious turn when rioting began and Sheriff Williams called out a large force of deputies to help restore order. The strikers have placed pickets at all approaches to the shops and are stopping all men who try to enter. Sheriff Williams feels confident he can handle the situation without calling for outside help.

Organized Against Tramps.

Columbus, Ind., July 19.—People in the neighborhood of Carter's Chapel, four miles north of here, have resolved themselves into a mutual protection association to protect their chapel from tramps. The Weary Willies have converted the church into a rendezvous and have broken down the doors and smashed the windows to effect entrance. They have destroyed a number of books belonging to the church.

More Miners on Strike.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 19.—Fifty men went on strike in the Coal Bluff Mining company's mine at Fontanet. The trouble was over the taking up of bottom coal, and the machine men and loaders refused to work, alleging that the bottom was too hard. This brings the total of striking miners in this immediate vicinity up to 650, and further trouble is threatened.

The Lure of the Water.

Washington, Ind., July 19.—Herschel, the sixteen-year-old son of Raymond Cooper, a well-known lumber man of Odon, was drowned in a deep fish pond about a mile from town. The boy was bathing with some friends and was seized with cramps.

Despondent Because of Ill Health.

Newcastle, Ind., July 19.—Joseph Robbins, fifty-six years old, committed suicide in the Maxwell Prisco park by drinking poison. Coroner Hiatt, after investigating, returned a verdict of suicide, giving as a cause melancholia brought about by ill health.

Injuries May Prove Fatal.

Quincy, Ill., July 19.—Leonard Roeder, aged 110, whose papers show him to have been a Prussian soldier at the time of the battle of Waterloo, fell down a flight of stairs at his home here and received injuries which will probably prove fatal.

STATE SURVEYORS MEET RESISTANCE

Question of Riparian Rights Disputed at Bruce Lake.

Rochester, Ind., July 19.—Auditor of State Billheimer's recent order for the surveying of Bruce lake, a body of water just west of here, came near resulting in a shooting affray on the farm of former County Treasurer Benjamin Bruce. Mr. Bruce saw the men on his land and yelled at them to get off. Bruce, getting his shotgun, went to where the men were working and emphasized his remarks in a manner that gained his point.

The work of surveying is very nearly through to the original meander line and it takes off strips of land in some places as deep as 400 feet. The land which the receded water leaves belongs to the state, and many acres will be reclaimed by the survey. Link Overmyer, who has been one of the persistent objectors to the dam on account of water backing up on his land, will have a strip cut off from his hay, corn and oats fields by the survey. Henry Guise will also lose by the new line land that he said has been sold for lots on the lake front and will have to be settled for to the state. Many other instances of land claiming have been found around the lake.

FIVE LIVES LOST

Party of Kentuckians Drowned in the Ohio Near Fort Thomas.

Cincinnati, July 19.—Five lives were lost in the capsizing of a gasoline boat in the Ohio river, and four others were rescued from the water more dead than alive, but were resuscitated, at Stuart's Landing on the Fort Thomas (Ky.) side, opposite Linwood, O., a suburb of this city.

The dead: John and Jacob Hoffman, Andrew Elbert and George Franso, all of Newport, Ky., and John Hanson.

Schooner Capsized.

New York, July 19.—Ten persons were drowned Sunday afternoon, two of them little girls, when the excursion sloop Roxana, carrying twenty-two passengers, was capsized by a sudden squall in lower New York bay. The captain of the Roxana and the twelve survivors were picked up under great difficulties in a rough and choppy sea by the tug Lamont.

Prices continue advancing in the cotton goods and cotton yarn markets.

HOUSE FOR CHILDREN

Families Without Them Will Not Be Admitted.

SPECIAL OFFER FOR BIRTHS.

Landlord of St. Louis Apartment Building Will Give a Month's Rent Free to Parents For a Girl and Two Months For a Boy—Several Novel Features.

Plans were recently filed with the building department of St. Louis for an apartment house exclusively for families with children. The doors of this house, which is to cost $400,000, will be shut against bachelors, old maids and childless couples. One child will be a badge of admittance, but the family with a dozen children will be welcomed with open arms. It is the first apartment house of its kind in the United States, and it will rise between two large and fashionable houses which forbid children.

S. D. Lederer, a real estate broker, is the originator of the idea, and he found ready backing for the scheme. He has a whole chain of novelties. With every girl born in the house he will present a receipted bill for one month's rent to the parents. Lederer places twice as high a value on boys, as every boy born will mean to the parents a receipted bill for two months' rent.

The building will be of eight stories, and there will be fifty-four apartments. Each apartment will have a specially equipped playroom. In addition there will be a large playroom in the basement, and in the summer the children will disport themselves on the roof. A dancing room will be provided, and dancing teachers will instruct the children without charge to the parents. There also will be instructors in physical culture, and it is proposed to establish a kindergarten.

"I am convinced the apartment house for children will fill a real want," said Lederer. "It will be the only one of its kind in the country, but I expect to see many more like it. Why, as soon as I gave out my plans half a dozen millionaires wanted to back the venture single handed. They saw the possibilities in it, and they wondered it hadn't been tried before.

"Every applicant will have to trot out the youngsters before I rent him an apartment. Children will be the requirement. One child will do, but the more the merrier. If a man comes along with a score of children he will be my prize tenant, and I'll put a brass plate on his door.

"It's easy to figure it out from the financial standpoint. With children in every family there will be no complaints on the score of noise. Then married couples with children are the most stable tenants and are less likely to move. They are the best rent payers, too, as all statistics show."

One of the features of the house will be a general nursery in charge of a nurse. Mothers going out shopping, afternoon calling or to the theater may leave their babies in the care of the nurse.

ODD TRAIN HOLDUP.

Rooster Drawn Under Locomotive Set Emergency Air Brake.

Rushing along at a rate of sixty miles an hour, going to New York, the New Jersey Central's fast express train Queen of the Valley, which left Wilkesbarre, Pa., at 8 o'clock the other morning, came to a sudden stop between Bethlehem and Freemansburg following the application by some agency, then a mystery, of the emergency air brake under the locomotive.

With such abruptness did the train stop that the passengers were thrown about in their seats. By the time they had an opportunity to leave the cars Engineer Tripper found the cause of the trouble.

An eight pound Plymouth Rock rooster scratching along the track had been drawn under the engine by the suction of the train with such force as to sever the air connections and stop the train.

The crew took the bird with them as a memento of the first train holdup that was ever pulled off by a chicken.

Theater Nurseries.

Mr. Jefferson, manager of the Metropole theater in Glasgow, proposes to make the experiment of establishing night creches for the use of visitors with babies attending his entertainments. As Mr. Jefferson caters almost entirely for a working class area, he believes that the scheme will meet the difficulties of a domestic situation which affects many of his patrons. Night nurseries will be attached to the theater, with a staff of nurses and equipped with cots, toys and baby food. A nominal charge of twopence and threepence a night will be made, and food will be supplied at cost price or the parents' own food given if they prefer to bring it with them.

Persons wishing to see the nursery in operation between the acts of the play will be allowed to do so on payment of threepence.

Gray Hairs Banished.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulpher the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulpher, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Courtlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

"Barley is this year far ahead of the biggest crop of the past," says the government crop report. What a shame, now that Indiana and a good many other States have gone "dry." Not even near-beer is getting a show, since courts are deciding against its sale because it is a "malt" liquor. What in the world will they with that bumper barley crop?

The government crop report for July makes very pleasant reading for the country. Reduced into plain terms, it indicates a yield of 3,161,000,000 bushels of corn, 663,000,000 bushels of wheat, 963,000,000 bushels of oats, 32,000,000 bushels of rye, and 184,000,000 bushels of barley. Except in the single item of wheat, this is a lead over 1908, and the falling off in wheat is only one million bushels. Save in 1902 and 1906, the oats crop promises to break all records. Barley is far ahead of the biggest crop of the past.

It is in corn, however, that the largest gain is made. The crop of 1906, which was 2,927,000,000 bushels, holds the record in corn along to the present date, but if existing indications are maintained the yield for 1909 will be 234,000,000 bushels in excess of that of that year. As the value of the corn is double that of wheat, the gain which is promised for 1909 is im portant. Owing to the comparatively low price of corn in 1906, the big crop of that year did not place as much money in the farmers' pockets as did the smaller one of 1907 and 1908. That of 1908 yielded the farmers $1,616,000,000. Undoubtedly the heavy crop of the present season, if the present prospects are continued, will reduce prices somewhat, but the growers will be compensated by the increased output. Two months more must pass, however, before the crop can be estimated with any confidence.

Although the United States is by far the greatest manufacturing country in the word, agriculture continues to be an important interest here. In farm products the country has almost as long a lead over rivals as it has in manufactures. For 1908 the aggregate value of all the country's farm crops was $7,778,000,000, which was a gain of $290,000,000 over 1907, $1,023,000,000 over 1906, and $1,469,000,000 over over 1905. The present prospect is that the total for 1909 will far above the $8,000,000,000 mark. Moreover, the people are likely to have cheaper food than was expected, which is a boon of large importance to the country. With the tariff soon to be placed upon teh statute book, and with crops assured which will be much above any harvested in the past, the outlook for an early return of prosperity ought to be bright enough to please the most pessimistic.

Many country people have lately importuned the Daily Republican to criticise their neighbors for allowing their hedges and weeds along the roads to grow unrestricted. The extent of the nuisance thus caused by landowners appears in the number of complaints. Some wish certain citizens roasted outright while others would be satisfied with an impersonal blister of general application, but the neighbor, however careless he may be in the matter of weed cutting and hedge trimming, is not the one who deserves their active disapproval. There is an officer whose business it is to keep down weeds and hedges along the highways. He is the district supervisor and his duties as to weeds are set forth in the State laws. Whatever "roasting" is done should be done to the district superintendent and the people of his own district are the ones to do it. While his official duty is not often exercised, it is based upon sound sense and its performance would be generally appreciated.

BUSINESS IS ON BIG INCREASE

flattering. If the road were built it would increase the business of the I. & C.

Charles L. Henry, receiver of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction company, has filed his report for the period from July 1, 1908, to June 30, 1909, in superior court No. 3, Judge Carter.

Mr. Henry says that an agreement has finally been made with the Westinghouse Electrical company for a settlement of its claims, and with the report is a letter from the trustees, Winfield T. Durbin, John J. Appel, Theodore F. Rose, G. A .Bell and Claude Cambern, saying a plan is on foot for the reorganization of the road. They represent 34 bonds of the company, and ask that the receivership be continued. They assert that as business is reviving all over the country, that money in hiding is coming out and seeking investment, as is shown by increased bank deposits. They assert that the road will be ready soon for reorganization; that the receiver's certificates will be paid in full and the bondholders will receive a large part of their investment. The trustees hope to accomplish the reorganization by August 1, 1910.

The reorganization plans contemplate an extension of the traction line from Connersville, Ind., to Hamilton, Ohio., a distance of 38 miles, which will give through traction service to Cincinnati.

The report shows there has been a large increase in the traction business in the last few months, and this is expected to continue.

Mr. Henry's report shows that the total indebtedness of the company at the present time is $1,144,043. During the year the receipts of the company totaled $451,806, and there was paid out $426,656, and $14,797 on receiver's certificates, leaving cash on hand in the sum of $10,422. The receiver's certificates, principal and interest, amounted to $947,629. Mr. Henry shows by his report that the general business depression which started in October, 1907, materially affected the earnings of the company in the year following.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the East Hill Cemetery Company of Rushville, Indiana, will receive sealed bids at 7:30 p. m. August 3, 1909, at the Rushville National bank for the construction of two (2) concrete arches.

Plans may be seen at the Rushville National Bank or at the office of Stewart & Kennedy in Rushville, Indiana.

All bids must be accompanied by certified check to the amount of $500.00.

Successful bidder will be required to give approved bond equal to amount of contract.

Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

ful orator. His lecture entitled "The Day After Tomorrow" is very fine.

A new, and we believe the most popular feature of the program will be "Indiana Day." This will be on Wednesday, August 11. On this day we expect to have some of the leading literary men and women of Indiana. We have already secured Kin Hubbard (Abe Martin), W. W. Pfrimmer, the Kankakee poet, Jessie Nay-Waggoner, Julietta Strauss, Alonzo Rice, and we expect to get others.

The music, we believe, will be especially attractive. We have, as heretofore, three musical attractions each for three days. For the first three days, the Lady Washington Quartette, one of the very best Chautauqua musical organizations will furnish the music. The next three days we are to have the Chicago Ladies Orchestra and for the remainder of the Chautauqua, "The Glazier Colored Jubilee."

The Chautauqua will open with a grand automobile parade on Friday afternoon, August 6. On Saturday, August 7, there will be a big Sunday school parade of all the Sunday schools of the county. A Sunday school speaker will be secured to address the schools and the day will be spent in picnicing.

The regular admission will be 25 cents. For Dolliver and Hobson programs the admission will be 50 cents.

A limited number of season tickets are out with the guarantors. These tickets may be bought while they last for $1.50. When they are gone season tickets will cost $2.00. Get your ticket early if you would save 50 cents.

We are to have a new tent this year which we believe will be much more satisfactory than in the past. The tent is to be seated with settees, furnished by Reynolds & Clifford. These will be much more comfortable and satisfactory than the benches used heretofore.

This gives Rush county a Chautauqua epual to that held in the larger cities. Prepare to come every day and urge all your neighbors to do the same. Everybody should boost the Chautauqua and get ready to have a grand and glorious time.

PARLOR CAR ROOF CAUGHT ON FIRE

TRAINMEN ACT AS FIREMEN

The parlor car on east bound C. H. & D. Passenger train No. 41 due here at 3:51, says the Connersville Courier, was discovered on fire Saturday when the train was between Rushville and Griffin Station. The fire was mostly in the roof of the car near the vestibule. The train was stopped and with a pick trainmen broke through the side and succeeded in putting out the fire with water. The damage was small as the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway.

The origin of the fire is said to have been from sparks that got into the roof through the ventilators of the coach.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS FOR COUNTRY CLUB

Tennis Courts Are to be Extensively Repaired and Hours For Playing Are Arranged.

A MAN TO CARE FOR GROUNDS

Several improvements are being considered for the Gun and Country club grounds east of this city. The tennis courts will again be repaired, as the condition in which they are now makes it next to impossible for playing. It is planned to tamp the ground thoroughly and roll it and then place a light covering of sand over the top. This will make them among the best courts in the State as they have been already perfectly graded.

The large number of players interested in the game have made it necessary for the tennis committee to lay down some stringent rules in regard to the time of playing. Children will be allowed to enjoy the sport in the afternoon between the hours of one and four when they will be requested to give way to the older members, who find it convenient to play only at that time. Mike Peckinpaugh has been secured to stay at the club grounds all of the time and keep them in condition.

BY THE WAYSIDE

He stood six feet and one inch in his boots and was only sixteen years old. This young giant hailed from Carthage, and the other day walked into the clerk's office and asked for a hunter's license. While the clerk was searching for the blanks, Avery Abernathy, for that was his name, inquired the price of the license.

"One dollar and they are good for one year," replied Deputy Clerk Spradling.

"Well, I only want one for six months since I am going to Oklahoma next winter and I suppose I can get it for fifty cents."

"I am sorry, but we cannot accommodate you, as we are not running any July clearance sales."

"But I only want one for six months and what is the use of paying one dollar when I will get only half of the value?"

He was finally induced to buy the year's license upon the suggestion that he might be able to sell the last half of the year to a friend.

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

The following was slipped in under the door leading to the engine room of the Daily Republican early this morning and speaks for itself:

The Happy-go-Daniels club took a pleasure trip to Indianapolis last Sunday, July 11, but could not go the 18th for they had to wait for repairs. But if they are in shape by the 25th the members will try again. One of the members, Jim Smith, got so sick over the trip that he had to call on Dr. O. D. Emery, and he applied the battery and said that he would be alright in a few days; that his nerves were just shocked a little. Tommie O'Neil's neck has been in bad shape for several days, from rubbering at the sky-scrapers, but Dr. Emery fixed him O. K. Frank Hayes went up to a dummy in front of the Park theater and wanted to know when the show would open up but getting no answer got real mad and wanted to whip the dummy. Eddie Barrett had fishing on the brain and as the stores were all locked and had no lines and bait he couldn't go and decided that we better go and get a mess of crabs for dinner, for they were next to fish. They took Sorrel Moore for a parrot and had to buy him a sack of peanuts to keep him quiet. They have taken in a new member in the order now. Ralph Kenner will be given the work next Sunday. At the ball game one of the members saw a bird and thought it was a ball and fell off the seat, dodging it.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace offers an exceedingly fine program tonight in an Urban-Eclipse reproduction showing "Christmas From the Birth of Christ to the Present Date" and "The Legend of the Stars." The pictures are hand colored and are great in the effects. The program taken in all, consists of a half-hour's genuine amusement and is one of the most beautiful reproductions in the animated picture world.

An excellent dramatic program has been secured for the Vaudet tonight in the two subjects, 'Forgotten" and "The Peddler's Reward." They depict interesting stories true to life. An extra attraction has been booked for Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The Thomas sisters, high class musicians, will give an entertainment at each show. They play violin and piano and are said to be talented. Earl Robinson will sing "Did He Run."

At the Star-Grand tonight and tomorrow night three subjects will be shown, "An Inspiring Sunset," "The Determined Wooer" and "Book-Taught Hypnotism." The first picture is indeed a revelation of the heights that can be attained in clever photography, and shows the wonderful feat of reproducing a sunset as seen across the silent waters of the bay. The other two pictures are both comic and are sure to bring a laugh. Miss Iva Brown will sing the illustrated song, "My Dear Old Western Home Among the Hills."

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

The Man From Brodney's

By GEORGE BARR M'CUTCHEON

Copyright, 1908, by Dodd, Mead & Co.

the sibilant hiss of the scorned Persians as he passed among them on the outskirts of the crowd. He observed the threatening attitude of the men who waited and watched. He saw the white, ugly face of Von Blitz quivering with triumph. He felt the breath of disaster upon his cheek. And yet he walked among them without fear, his head erect, his eyes defiant.

The market place was a large open tract in the extreme west end of the town, some distance removed from the business street and the pier. Through a break in the foothills the chateau was plainly discernible, the sea being obscured from view by the dense forest that crowned the cliffs.

Chase made his way boldly to the nearest platform, exchanging bows with the surprised Von Blitz and the saturnine Rasula, who stood quite near. The men of Japat slowly drew close in as he mounted the platform. From where he stood looking out over those bronze faces he could pick out the scowling husbands who hated him because their wives hated them. Afar off stood the group of women who had inspired this hatred and distrust. Behind them, despised and uncountenanced by the oriental elect, were crowded the native women, who down in their hearts loathed the usurpers. It was Chase's hope that the husbands of these simple women would ultimately stand at his side in the fight for supremacy, and they were vastly in the majority. If he could convince these men that his dealings with them were honest, Von Blitz could go hang.

He faced the crowd, knowing that all there were against him. "Von Blitz!" he called suddenly. The German started and stepped back involuntarily, as if he had been reprimanded.

"I've called this meeting in order to give you a chance to say to my face some of the things you are saying behind my back. Thank God, all of you men understand English. I want you to hear what Von Blitz has to say in public, and then I want you to hear what I say to him. Von Blitz and Rasula and others, I hear, have undertaken to discredit my motives as the agent of your London advisers. Let me say right here that the man who says that I have played you false in the slightest degree is a liar—a — liar, if you prefer it that way. You have been told that I am selling you out to the lawyers for the opposition. That is lie No. 1. You have been led to believe that I make false reports to your London solicitors. Lie No. 2. You have been poisoned with the story that I covet certain women in this town, too numerous to mention, I believe. That is lie No 3. They are all beautiful, my friends, but I wouldn't have one of 'em as a gift.

"For the past few nights my home has been watched. I want to announce to you that if I see anybody hanging around the bungalow after today I'm going to put a bullet through him, just as I would through a dog. Now, to come down to Von Blitz. You can't drive me out of this island, old man. You have lied about me ever since I beat you up that night. You are sacrificing the best interests of these people in order to gratify a personal spite, in order to wreak a personal vengeance. You"—

Von Blitz, foaming with rage, broke in: "I suppose you vill call out der warships! We are not fools! You can fool some of"—

"Now, see here, Von Blitz, I'll show whether I can call out a warship whenever I need one. I have never intended to ask naval help except in case of an attack by our enemies up at the chateau. You can't believe that I seek to turn those big guns against my own clients—the clients I came out here to serve with my life's blood if necessary. But, hear me, you Dutch lobster, I can have a British man-of-war here in ten hours to take you off this island and hang you from a yardarm on the charge of conspiracy against the crown."

Von Blitz and Rasula laughed scornfully and turned to the crowd. The latter began to harange his fellows.

"This man is a—a—" he began.

"A bluff!" prompted Von Blitz, glaring at his tall accuser.

"A bluff," went on Rasula. "He can do none of these things. Nor can the Americans at the chateau. I know that they are liars. They"—

"I'll make you pay for that, Rasula. Your time is short. Men of Japat, I don't want to serve you unless you trust me"—

A dozen voices cried: "We don't trust you, dog of a Christian, son of a snake!" Von Blitz glowed with satisfaction.

"One moment, please. Rasula knows that I came out here to represent Sir John Brodney. He knows how I am regarded in London. He is jealous because I have not listened to his chatter. I am not responsible for the probable delay in settling the estate. If you are not very careful you will ruin every hope for success that you may have had in the beginning. The crown will take it out of your hands. You've got to show yourselves worthy of handling the affairs of this company. You can't do it if you listen to such carrion as Von Blitz and Rasula. Oh, I'm not afraid of you! I know that you have written to Sir John, Rasula, asking that I be recalled. He won't recall me, rest assured, unless he throws up the case. I have his own letters to prove that he is satisfied with my work out here. I am satisfied that there are enough fair minded men in this crowd to protect me. They will stand by me in the end. I call upon"—

But a howl of dissent from the throng brought him up sharply. His face went white, and for a moment he feared the malevolence that stared at him from all sides. He looked frequently in the direction of the distant chateau. Knives slipped from many sashes. Von Blitz was screaming with insane laughter, pointing his finger at the discredited American. While they shouted and cursed, his gaze never left the cleft in the hills. He did not attempt to cry them down. The effort would have been in vain. Suddenly a wild, happy light came into his anxious, searching eyes. He gave a mighty shout and raised his hands, commanding silence.

Selim, clinging to his side, also had seen the skyrocket which arose from the chateau and dropped almost instantly into the wall of trees.

There was something in the face and voice of the American that quelled the riotous disorder.

"You fools!" he shouted. "Take warning! I have told you that I would not turn the guns of England and America against you unless you turned against me. I am your friend, but by the great Mohammed you'll pay for my life with every one of your own if you resort to violence. Listen! Today I learned that my life was threatened. I sent a message in the air to the nearest battleship. There is not an hour in the day or night that I or the people in the chateau cannot

The awestruck crowd parted to let Chase pass.

call upon our governments for help. My call today has been answered, as I knew it would be. There is always a warship near at hand, my friends. It is for you to say whether a storm of shot and shell"—

Von Blitz leaped upon a platform and shouted madly: "Fools! Don't believe him! He cannot bring der ships here! He lies, he lies! He"—

At that moment a shrill clamor of voices arose in the distance, the cries of women and children. Chase's heart gave a great bound of joy. He knew what it meant.

Chase pointed his finger at Von Blitz and shouted:

"I can't, eh? There's a British warship stapding off the harbor now, and her guns are trained"—

But he did not complete the astounding, stupefying sentence. The women were screaming:

"The warship, the warship! Fly, fly!"

In a second the entire assemblage was racing furiously, doubtingly, yet fearfully, toward the pier. Von Blitz and Rasula shouted in vain. They were left with Chase, who smiled triumphantly upon their ghastly faces.

"Gentlemen, they are not deceived There is a warship out there. You came near to showing your hand tonight. Now come along with me, and I'll show my hand to you. Rasula, you'd better draw in your claws. You're entitled to some consideration But Von Blitz! Jacob, you are standing on very thin ice. I can have you shot tomorrow morning."

Von Blitz sputtered and snarled. "It is all a lie! It is a trick!" He would have drawn his revolver had not Rasula grasped his arm. The native lawyer dragged him off toward the pier, half doubting his own senses.

Just outside the harbor, plainly distinguishable in the moonlight, lay a great cruiser, her searchlights whipping the sky and sea with long white lashes.

The gaping, awestruck crowd in the street parted to let Chase pass through on his way to the bungalow. His manner was that of a mediaeval conqueror. He looked neither to right nor to left.

"It's more like a Christian Endeavor meeting than it was ten minute ago," he was saying to himself, all the time wondering when some reckless unbeliever would hurl a knife at his back. He gravely winked his eye in the direction of the chateau. "Good old Britt!" he muttered in his exultation.

ISN'T IT STRANGE?
Did it ever occur to you that the reason medical doctors have so little success in curing Tuberculosis, is because they really do not practice medicine?
To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alterative, we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness and in permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.
Telling every sufferer to gorge himself with eggs and milk is apparently the limit of modern treatment. Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome nourishing food; but frequently raw eggs in quantities, cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many; but a producer of biliousness for some.
Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient?—Eckman's Alterative has cured and is curing many a case of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is a specimen:—
St. Mary's, 253 N. Third St.
Memphis, Tenn., September 5, 1907.
Gentlemen: . . . The patient for whom we ordered the Alterative some time since has regained his health. The doctors say his lungs have healed.
Respectfully,
(Signed) SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS

Persia's Capital Quiets Down After Recent Storm.

BOY SHAH NOW ON THE JOB

Young Son of the Deposed Ruler of Persia Escorted to the Palace Under Protection of Russia and England—Though Nervous at New Responsibilities, the Youthful Ruler Does Not Unbend His Dignity—He Will Be Sent Abroad to Study Up a Bit.

Teheran, Persia, July 19.—The former crown prince, Solton Ahmed Mirza, now the shah, accompanied by his tutor and a British and Russian escort, drove Sunday morning from the Russian summer legation to the Sultanabad palace. As the shah enered the palace the escort left him at the gate and returned to the legation, thus signifying that his majesty was no longer under Anglo-Russian protection.

A brief ceremony was held at the palace at which the regent and the foremost of the Nationalist forces acclaimed the new shah. The boy shah appeared nervous but dignified. It is believed that he will be sent abroad to study under the supervision of a new tutor.

Perfect order prevails here. Mohamed Ali, the dethroned shah, who is now in the Russian summer legation, has declined to receive a deputation to inform him of his deposition, stating that having taken refuge in the Russian legation he has, ipso facto, abdicated; therefore he does not wish to receive a deputation which comes for the purpose of informing him of the fact.

Mohamed Ali probably will depart shortly for Russia. It is believed that the queen is desirous of accompanying the former shah, taking with her the crown prince who is newly proclaimed.

The Official Account.

Washington, July 19.—In an official cablegram received from Teheran at the Persian legation, announcing that the hereditary prince, Solton Ahmed, has been proclaimed shah, it was stated that the unpopularity and unworthiness of Mohamed Ali Mirza caused him to be deposed. The message said that the parliament gave way to the representatives of the people of the Persian nation and that a conference between the head of the Mohammedan church, princes, high dignitaries and the old members of congress, the vote was unanimous against the deposed shah. Azedolmolk has been appointed provisional regent and will serve in that capacity until parliament reaches a decision over the appointment of a permanent regent.

FATAL WRECK ON MONON

Fast Train Left Track and Two Enginemen Were Killed.

Crawfordsville, Ind., July 19.—Monon passenger train No. 3, southbound, while rounding a sharp curve south of Manchester, Ind., Sunday morning, jumped the track. Two trainmen, Engineer Burns and Fireman Austin, were killed and six passengers were injured, none fatally. The mail clerks, the conductors and a baggageman were slightly hurt.

Seven cars left the rails, but only one, the baggage car, and the engine, turned over. All the injured passengers were brought to a hotel in this city.

Engineer Norman Burns, fifty-eight years old, of Lafayette, and Fireman Lawrence, twenty-seven years old, of New Albany, remained at their posts and both lost their lives. Burns, the engineer, was known as "Old Buster" and had been with the road for several years, while the fireman had been firing but a few months.

The body of Burns was found with the back lying against the firebox. He had an ugly gash cut above his right eye, but it is thought his death was caused by escaping steam. His position in the cab indicated that he had attempted to escape, but was pinioned beneath the wreckage. Austin remained in the seat, and when the engine turned over he was thrown under the firebox and scalded to death. The train was one of the best on the road.

GENERAL AMNESTY

One Way of Cleaning the Docket of Turkish Cutthroats.

Constantinople, July 19.—The court-martial's report on the late Adana massacres which has just been made public is a strong denunciation of the incapacity and apathy of the vali and other local authorities. The report concludes as follows:

"Fifteen persons already have been hanged; 800 deserve death; 15,000 deserve hard labor for life; 80,000 deserve minor sentences. If it is decided to proceed with the punishment, we will cordon the town and deal expeditiously with the matter."

In view, however, of the general reconciliation between the opposing elements, the report recommends that general amnesty be made the occasion of a national fete.

A CLEAN HEAD MEANS A COOL HEAD

Good Things to Know in Warm Weather.

Better to know what will make the head clean and cool.
Only one answer.
Parisian Sage.
You've heard of it of course.
You knew it was the only real dandruff germ killer worth while.
You knew F. B. Johnson & Co. guarantees it to stop dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.
That this wonderful hair rejuvenator, Parisian Sage, turns harsh, faded, lusterless hair into silky, beautiful lustrous hair in a few days.
You know that it is extensively used by women of refinement.
But you didn't know that it would keep the scalp nice and cool in summer.
Well, now you know it, so get a large bottle and if you aren't satisfied get your money back.—50 cents at F. B. Johnson & Co.
Leading druggists everywhere in America now sell Parisian Sage, and for your own good always remember that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Made in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo N. Y.

ELECTRIC SUBWAY FOR MAIL.

Trains In Vienna Will Travel About Twenty Miles an Hour.

Plans are now under consideration for an underground electric railway in Vienna, Austria, for the transmission of postal matter. It is proposed to link together the chief postoffice and sixty-four substations and the nine railway stations in the city. Letters, newspapers and parcels will be carried over this line instead of in wagons through the streets. It is estimated that the line will take the place of 450 mail wagons and 700 horses, which now make some 2,500 journeys through the city every day.

The railway will be built in a subway five feet high and a little less in width. Each car will carry eighty packages, which is equal to the capacity of a one horse mail wagon. Trains of eight cars will be run every twenty minutes from half past 5 in the morning until 10 o'clock at night. They will carry motormen, but will be operated from dispatch stations and will travel about twenty miles an hour.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

THE TARIFF BILL MOVING ALONG

Report of Conferees Expected Last of Week.

THE SUBJECT OF CONJECTURE

Just What Will Be the Uultimate Fate of the Measure No Man Seems to Be Able to Say, but the General Impression Is That Both Houses Will Adopt the Conference Report and That the President Will Sign the Completed Bill—The Five Critical Schedules.

Washington, July 19.—The tariff conference committee is now near the end of its task and its report is expected to be completed in the last part of this week. How long it will take the senate and the house to pass finally upon the work of the conference committee and what will be the ultimate fate of the measure as a whole is the subject of varying conjecture, but the general impression in quarters usually well informed is that the report of the committee will be adopted by both houses and will reach the hands of the president early next week.

Most people here expect that President Taft will sign the bill. He himself caused a flurry throughout congress last Friday night by the issue of what amounted to an informal message to congress in which he reiterated his conviction that the national platform of the Republican party meant, and the sentiment of the people as a whole demanded, a bona fide downward revision of the tariff. After all is said, this statement really surprised nobody, as the president had said substantially the same thing in his recent speech at New Haven, but it served to crystallize a somewhat fluctuating sentiment in the committee of conference, and it may have expedited the committee's action.

In all probability the five subjects which have received President Taft's personal attention—iron ore, coal, oil, hides and lumber—will be taken up by the conferees during the latter part of the present week. There are a number of paragraphs in the bill which cannot be disposed of until rates are determined for the subjects named. Proceeding upon the assumption that iron ore and oil will be placed upon the free list, and that existing duties on coal, hides and lumber will be materially reduced, the conferees are preparing amendments to be offered on articles related to the foregoing raw materials. In consequence all of these subjects may be disposed of immediately after duties have been determined for the more important subjects.

Outside of the questions which are receiving the personal attention of President Taft, the greatest difficulty anticipated relates to the wood pulp and print paper schedule. On account of the statement of Representative Mann (Ill.), who was chairman of the special committee which investigated this whole subject and reported reduced rates to the house, that he would vote against the conference report unless the views of his special committee were recognized, the conferees having delayed disposition of this schedule.

The house rate on print paper was fixed at $2 a ton. The senate rate is $4 a ton, as against the existing rate of $6 a ton. The general impression is that the senate conference will offer to compromise with the house by agreeing to accept a rate of $3. Senator Hale is opposing any reduction of the senate rate; therefore the subject is likely to be one of the last settled.

Because She Gave Him Up.

Columbus, O., July 19.—Frank Grimes, colored, shot and instantly killed Blanche McKnight, aged twenty-four, white, in her home here Sunday afternoon, when she refused to return to former relations with him. Grimes then gave himself up to a policeman. Grimes was released last week from the workhouse after a sentence for living with the McKnight woman.

Strike Leads to Bloodshed.

Butler, Pa., July 19.—In a riot following the unexpected arrival here of a detachment of state constabulary late Sunday afternoon, a striking employe of the Standard Steel Car company of Lyndora was probably fatally injured and two bystanders seriously wounded. Fifteen alleged strike leaders were arrested and jailed.

Soldier Severely Punished.

Honolulu, July 19.—Five years' hard labor with dishonorable discharge from the army was the sentence imposed by courtmartial at Schofield barracks upon Private R. C. Cunningham of Troop K, Fifth cavalry for annoying two Hawaiian girls while on sentry duty.

The two down-town tunnels of the Hudson and Manhattan railroad company, which will connect lower New York city with Jersey City under the Hudson river, were opened today.

Henry L. Bascombe, at one time a well-known actor, is dead at Philadelphia, aged seventy-six years.

DON CARLOS DEAD

Pretender to the Spanish Throne Succumbs to Long Illness.

Rome, July 19.—The pretender to the Spanish throne, Don Carlos of Bourbon, died Sunday at Varese, in Lombardy. He had been ill for a long time and the latest reports indicated that he was suffering from apoplexy with the accompanying paralysis.

Don Carlos, Duke of Madrid, who claimed under the special law of succession established by Philip V., to be the legitimate king of Spain by the title of Charles VII., was born at Laybach, Austria, March 30, 1848. His father, Don Juan, was the brother of Don Carlos, Charles VII., known as the Count De Montmolen, in support of whose claims the Carlist risings of 1848, 1855 and 1860 were organized.

As Charles VI. died in 1861 without children, his rights devolved upon his brother, Don Juan, who had married the Archduchess Maria Teresa of Austria. Their son, Don Carlos, married on Feb. 4, 1867, Margaret De Bourbon. In October, 1868, Don Juan abdicated in favor of his son, whose standard was raised in the north of Spain in 1872 by some of his partisans. Don Carlos himself, after addressing a proclamation to the inhabitants of Catalonia, Aragon and Valentia, calling upon them to take up arms in his cause, made his entry into Spain July 15, 1873, announcing that he came for the purpose of saving the country. Then followed the "four years' war," which ended in January, 1876, when Tolosa, the last stronghold of the Carlists, fell and its defenders sought refuge on French territory. In the meantime the republic came to an end and the eldest son of ex-Queen Isabella returned to Spain as Alfonso XII. Alfonso XII. died in 1885 and the fight for the succession now raged between Marie Christina of Austria, the widow of the late king, and Don Carlos. The posthumous birth of the present king in 1886, however, kindled in the nation a feeling of loyalty which has continued to exist up to the present time.

Within recent years there has been a recurrence of the Carlist agitation in Catalonia and other districts which was attributed to the influence of Don Jaime, the only son of Don Carlos, but these movements have proved to be of little importance.

Carlists Will Not Give Up.

Paris, July 19.—Don Jaime, in an interview here, gave the impression that he would follow the policies of his father, Don Carlos. He said he would make the Carlist movement more modern and more aggressive.

HIS VOW OF BLOOD WAS LEFT UNPAID

But He Had Done Quite Enough to Deserve His Fate.

Manila, July 19.—When Jikiri, the Moro bandit chief, who was killed with all his followers in a desperate battle with troops and constabulary near Patian, on Jolo Island, July 5, began his career as an outlaw he swore he would kill a hundred men before he died. The record of the murders he committed is not complete, but it is stated in a dispatch received from Zamboanga that the bandit very nearly fulfilled his oath, having slain almost a hundred.

From the latest reports of the fight all but one of the several women in the cave where the outlaws made their last stand were wives of Jikiri. But one of the women escaped. She was the wife of one of Jikiri's followers and accepted the safe conduct offered by the Americans before the attack.

Lieutenant Joseph A. Baer of the Sixth cavalry, it is agred by all who saw the fight, was the hero of the affair. His timely rescue of Lieutenant Arthur H. Wilson, who was struggling with Jikiri when Baer shot and killed the bandit, and his certain aim which brought down three other outlaws, is the talk of army circles.

Moors Were Repulsed.

Melilla, July 19.—The Moors Sunday made an attack upon the camp of General Marena, but were repulsed by the artillery. Reinforcements are being forwarded to General Marena's assistance as rapidly as possible.
